

Chief Executive Officer

McInnes Cooper is among the 20 largest business law firms in Canada, serving clients in Atlantic Canada, across North America and abroad from six offices – Halifax, St. John's, Fredericton, Moncton, Saint John and Charlottetown. With experience in all Canadian jurisdictions, more than 200 lawyers and 300 professional resources, the firm offers legal and business services to industry-leading clients in every major sector.

McInnes Cooper is seeking its next Chief Executive Officer (CEO) to continue and enhance the firm's focus on client service excellence, innovation and market prominence.

As the CEO, you will work closely with the Board of Directors and the Partners to develop the firm's strategic direction and drive growth. A key ambassador, spokesperson and community leader on behalf of McInnes Cooper, you will continue to raise the profile of the firm, create opportunities for new business and be a role model for excellence in client service. Living the firm's mission and values, you will responsibly manage the internal operations and infuse energy and creativity into the business by anticipating future trends and market conditions, and maximizing opportunities, locally, nationally and internationally. You will provide confident leadership, sound decision-making and prudent financial management to a talented and passionate team of legal and business professionals. Ultimately, you will ensure McInnes Cooper's long term success and continued position as a top tier Canadian law firm.

A recognized leader in a law or professional services firm, you are best known for your superior communication skills, collegiality and reliably sound judgement. Your mature leadership style and unparalleled track record for delivering business growth and strong bottom lines in a competitive environment will allow you to succeed in this crucial role. You are a natural people person with a highly evolved ability to attract, develop and retain top talent and galvanize a creative and innovative team of engaged firm members. You demonstrate business and financial savvy, are a trusted advisor to clients and colleagues, and have a strong sense of corporate social responsibility.

If you are ready to lead one of Canada's top 20, we should talk. To learn more, please contact Anna Stuart, Stephanie Sykes or Jason Ozon by phone at 902.421.9849, email at jozon@kbrs.ca or submit your application online at www.kbrs.ca/Careers/11333. We will begin to consider candidates on June 20, 2016.

---