

LAWYERS

Our mission at Legal Aid Saskatchewan is to help achieve fair, balanced, and respectful justice for eligible people in Saskatchewan by providing accessible and professional legal services in criminal and family law using a staff-based model.

Legal Aid Saskatchewan is accepting applications from motivated and energetic Lawyers with a minimum of 2 years' experience in criminal and family law.

Positions range from 9 Months to Two Year Terms, depending on the location.

Legal Aid Saskatchewan employs staff lawyers across Saskatchewan at our 14 Area Offices. Preference will be given to those interested in establishing roots in the communities of:

- Melfort (2 year term position)
- Swift Current (1 year term position)
- Saskatoon City (9 month term position)

Future opportunities may be available at other area offices or at larger centers.

These are great opportunities for lawyers who want to be part of a collegial team that promotes a collaborative and respectful working environment.

Benefits include a salary range for the position of $79,750 to $143,920 per annum; entitlement of 6 weeks off per annum and 13 Statutory Holidays [prorated for term positions].

Applicants should be Lawyers eligible to practice in Saskatchewan.

We encourage applications from people of Aboriginal ancestry, persons of a visible minority group, persons with disabilities and women seeking management and non-traditional roles. Legal Aid Saskatchewan has an employment equity program approved by the Saskatchewan Human Rights Commission.

To explore these opportunities, we encourage qualified applicants to submit their resumé and cover letter (including references) clearly demonstrating how you meet the education and experience criteria listed as well as identifying preferred location. Submissions must be received before September 14, 2020 at:
