

Law Society of Prince Edward Island

Distinguished Community Service Award

Presented by:

Law Society of Prince Edward Island

Background:

In early 2007, Derek D. Key, Q.C. & Nancy L. Key, Q.C. established the “Distinguished Community Service Award” to honour, recognize and celebrate the valuable contribution members have made to various community organizations at the local, provincial or national level, as well as to showcase the vast spectrum of voluntary services that members provide to the community at large.

Eligibility:

The award is open to any member in good standing with the Law Society of Prince Edward Island.

Criteria:

The qualifications to receive the “Distinguished Community Service Award” include, but are not restricted to:

- Active and sustained participation in a charitable or non-profit organization;
- Contributions as a volunteer through education or promotion of volunteerism by way of ideas, practices or publications;

- Continued performance and effort over a period of time in a variety of volunteer activities which has resulted in the enhancement and improvement of the organization, activity or community;
- Implementation of special events or programs including assisting such organizations through periods of difficulty, change or restructuring.

Presentation:

The Award will be presented in June at the Law Society’s annual dinner in conjunction with the AGM. In addition, Mr. & Madam Justice Key will donate $2,500 to the award recipient’s charity of choice.

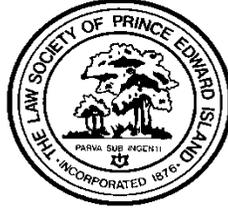

Nomination Procedure:

A Nomination Form, accompanied by a letter of support stating the reasons for the candidate’s nomination must be submitted to the Selection Committee.

Selection Process:

The Award is administered by a Selection Committee, an ad hoc committee appointed annually by the Law Society of Prince Edward Island.

Deadline for Submissions: May 31
